

So You're Thinking About

SAVANNAH...???

A workshop for Girl Scouts, 5th grade and up

Ever wanted to know more about the birthplace of Girl Scouting in the USA, and the ORIGINAL "J. Low"???

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the USA, Ambassador Troop 5007 invites you to:

Discover many of the exciting places to see in Savannah, Georgia (including the 1st Headquarters, J. Low Birthplace, Paula Deen's Restaurants, The Pirates' House, Old Fort Jackson, Tybee Island, and much more!) & learn why YOU might be interested in a visit to this historic place, Connect with others who have a similar interest, as well as those who have been there, and learn how YOU can...

Take Action to visit this amazing location too! Even if you don't choose to visit Savannah, we hope our Expo will introduce you to how Girl Scouts got started, and be more familiar with the excitement of the city!

Although this expo does NOT include a patch, it can be incorporated into many Girl Scout award programs, and helps to celebrate the Girl Scout Centennial!

WHO: Open to registered Girl Scouts (5th grade and up), and their Leaders.
(Participation in this event CAN count toward your BRIDGING requirements!)
We respectfully ask you to try to limit Adults to 2 per troop. MUST be registered & cleared with GSSDIC .

WHEN: Sunday, March 25, 2012. Program begins promptly @ 4:00, ends no later than @ 6:00 PM

WHERE: Balboa Program Center, Florence Burnham Hall

COST: $10.00 per Person (girl OR adult)...FINAL DEADLINE is 3/16/2012 or until maximum capacity is reached. Our workshops typically fill long before the deadline, so don't delay!!!
Registration fee is non-refundable. Fee includes all presentations, giveaways, hand-outs, and LOTS of Southern-style snacks plus charming Southern hospitality...explore with our "just for fun" Scavenger hunt!

Profits from this workshop will go to assist Troop 5007 as we travel to "Pax Lodge" & "Our Chalet" in June 2012.
